

Dear European Branch Member

In 2019 European Branch will organize the IAATI Training Seminar in Ljubljana, Slovenia from 6.November– 8.November 2019.

During the Seminar, we will be holding our annual awards ceremony.

If you wish to nominate anyone or know of any possible candidates please submit the nominations to Nils Kristian Brekke via email at nkb@codanforsikring.no or other members of the Board.

We are seeking Nominations for the 2 awards,

The IAATI Award and Barry Hancock Memorial Award

The criteria for nominations are detailed below

1: 2019 IAATI Award

Created in 1999, this award is intended to honour any person, group, department or company, possessing the qualifications of an IAATI member, although membership is not a prerequisite, who has in some way distinguished themselves in vehicle theft investigations and in recognition for outstanding contribution in the area of vehicle theft investigation or prevention.

2: International Association of Auto Theft Investigators European Branch
Barry Hancock Memorial Award

This award, named in honour of Barry Hancock, Past President of IAATI European Branch, is given to IAATI members who have distinguished themselves by extraordinary service to the association or for other outstanding acts in the vehicle crime investigation.